

JAKSON INNS: A Jewel in a Jewelled Plain

Nestled among serene sugarcane fields, pomegranate orchards, wind farms, temples and wineries, rivers and lakes in Phaltan, Satara, is India's first Three Star LEED GREEN Platinum Rated Hotel, Jakson Inns.

Located on a 6 acre property it hosts 69 deluxe rooms of 290 sq ft. and 4 suites of 560 sq ft. The hotel boasts a contemporary bar, a vibrant multicuisine restaurant and 24 hour in-room dining service. It has both indoor and outdoor recreation facilities suited for families. A full service gym and treatment room is at your service. Also in house is a massage service by well trained visually handicapped employees to keep you relaxed as you create memories. There are rooms tailored for the single female traveler and for the physically challenged. The hotel also has a large convention facility and an outdoor lawn accommodating 1000 persons. The hotel has Platinum rated facility by the Indian Green Building Council and complies with all ISO and ADA – American Disabilities Act standards.

The hotel was designed not only for corporate travel but also for family getaways. It hosts a fully equipped 15 person board room with video conferencing facilities. Also available is a Banqueting facility which can seat between 70 to 150 people in various styles for various occasions such as conferences and meetings. In addition the outdoor lawns are ideal for weddings and large events.

For those wanting to escape the hustle and bustle of city life and savour mother nature with family, the Jakson Inns Phaltan should be your destination. Rustic experiences like experience of milking cows, riding a bullock cart, watch sugarcane turning into sugar crystals, seeing a mulberry worm turn into silk garments, learn ancient pickling recipes, having Masala Chai under a mango tree, eating Zunka Bhakar on the lawns, horse riding, picnics on wind farms, sight seeing around the vicinity like the Ram Mandir, the Jakson Inns Phaltan provides the entire ensemble.

The hotels proximity to the Fratelli & Four Season Vineyards also makes it a favourable destination for wine lovers. Apart from this, the hotel is a popular destination for guests seeking to visit the famous Kas Pathar – the valley of flowers.

Phaltan is the ancient capital of Maharashtra and was the birthplace of Shivaji Maharaj's first wife Saibai and so has a rich historic significance. It is a hub for temple tourism and the Pandharpur-litra blesses the hotel every year.

Being at a proximity of 4.5 hours from Mumbai and two hours from Pune, the hotel is located at an exciting destination that breaks the monotony of Lonavla, Khandala and Mahableshwar.

As part of its initiative to promote environmentally and culturally friendly tourism, Jakson Hospitality will be promoting eco and village tourism in the Satara district of Maharashtra. Jakson Hospitality presently operates 'Jakson Inns Phaltan', India's first three-star LEED GREEN platinum rated hotel which is nestled among the serene sugarcane fields and pomegranate orchards. Jakson Inns Phaltan has developed many experiential outdoor activities for its guest from nature trails, fort treks, leisure activities, village tours, farm visits, cultural tours and wind mill tours.

Announcing the developments Sandeep Talasila, Managing Director, Jakson Hospitality Pvt. Ltd. says, "We

Guests can visit Pusegaon windmill farm to catch a glimpse of hundreds of gigantic windmills set amidst the adjoining hills. For art lovers Aundh Museum exhibits some of the rare paintings and sculptures by well known Indian and European artists. Trekkers can visit the Ajinkya Tara Fort, located at 3,300 feet above sea level in the Sahayadri Mountains offering magnificent view of the entire Satara city. Visit the largest organic farm in Satara on a bullock cart, learn traditional techniques of farming and experience Zebra, Gladiola and Rose plantations. For those keen on ancient culture and history, visit the royal palace of the Marathas. For a special expedience of farming guests can visit the nearby sugarcane fields, dairy farms, pomegranate orchards to savour goodness of nature.

Jakson Hospitality owns and operates the brands Jakson Inns, Jakson Residency, Jakson Hotels, Jakson Spa and Jakson Resorts. Jakson Inns Phaltan offers 74 well appointed guest rooms and suites, a fully equipped gym, spa, a multi cuisine restaurant, contemporary bar and a banquet hall.

have long recognised the potential of eco and village tours in the district of Satara and have been constantly developing opportunities to promote tourism in this region. We aim to strengthen our commitment to responsible tourism by conceptualising eco sensitive packages for our guests and keep sustainability at the forefront. The market for eco sensitive tourism has been growing exponentially over the years and will continue this momentum over the next two decades. We are extremely delighted to be partnering with the local community at Satara to deliver unique travel experiences aimed at individual and corporate groups".

Jakson Ltd. headquartered at Noida, Delhi is a pioneer in Power Generating Solutions with an experience of over 60 years. The company recently diversified into the hospitality sector seeking to create a benchmark in hotel operations. Jakson Ltd. owns and operates in the Silent Commercial Generators and Solar Power business and has over 2000 employees with its current revenues exceeding ₹2,500 crores per annum. 