

EXPLORE WINDMILLS, PALACES AND WATERFALLS

Go on a weekend tour to Phaltan, a former non-salute Maratha princely state in Satara. While you're here, marvel at hundreds of stark white windmills that dot the lush landscape at Pussegaon, and soak in the view of gushing waterfalls at Thoseghar. If a trip through history is what you seek, visit the Phaltan Rajwada (in pic), the former residence of the royal family. Built in 1875, it features opulent heritage halls and six courtyards. You can also explore Ajinkyatara Fort or visit Aundh Museum. While in Phaltan, you could stay at the Jakson Inns property.
